The Hardin County History Museum is excited to announce its second (2nd) summer history camp! This year's camp will be held at the Hardin County History Museum, The Old State Theater, The Brown-Pusey House and the Elizabethtown Cemetery! The theme is:

Happy 225th Birthday, Kentucky & Hardin County!

Here is a quick sampling of what to expect...

Day One – Trip to the Old State Theater with a movie, carding wool and spinning thread to create a bracelet

Day Two – A trip back in time to churn butter, complete a web quest, weaving, and old fashion storytelling! A trip to the Brown-Pusey house with special guests – Gov. and Mrs. Helm

Day Three - A trip to the Cemetery to learn about our founders, weaving project, storytelling, plus a local author with a book signing! We'll end the day with a Kentucky Birthday Party!

The dates are set for June 13 - 15. Activities will start at 9:00 in the morning and end at noon each day.

To ensure a successful experience for all campers, we will only be able to accept the first 40 applications complete with payment. Registrations must be received by May 26, 2017. If you have any questions, please feel free to email Laureen Laumeier at llaumeier@comcast.net or you may call 270-304-8163.

Looking forward to sharing our rich past with our future!

Come join us!

Happy 225th Birthday, Kentucky!
